

2.1 Internal organisation	Understanding the functions of key departments and analysing their relationships and interdependence: • production – organisation of producing goods/services, quality and stock control • marketing – market research, research and development, product planning, packaging, pricing, sales promotion, advertising, distribution • human resources (personnel) – recruitment, training, terms and conditions of service, contracts, disciplinary and grievance procedures, dismissal • finance – wages, salaries, cash flow forecasting, invoicing and accounts. Understanding the key terms used in the management of people in business – chain of command, hierarchy, span of control and delegation. Understanding of the roles and responsibilities of employees in terms of compliance and accountability.
---	--