

2.3 Recruitment and selection

Understanding the procedures involved in the recruitment of employees internally or externally. Understanding and analysing the role and function of job descriptions, person (job) specifications, advertising and interviews in the process of recruiting employees.

Analysis of the effects of changing legislation on equal opportunities in terms of gender, race, pay, disability, religious and sexual preference.