

Component 2: Modern Drama and Literary Heritage Texts (examined)

The focus of this component is:

Section A – Modern drama

Section B – Literary heritage texts.

Content

Students will study two set texts for this component: one of the modern drama set texts and one of the literary heritage set texts. The full list of set texts for this component is as follows.

A choice of one text from Modern Drama

A View from the Bridge	Arthur Miller
An Inspector Calls	J B Priestley
The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time	Mark Haddon (adapted by Simon Stephens)
Kindertransport	Diane Samuels
Death and the King's Horseman	Wole Soyinka

A choice of one text from Literary Heritage

Romeo and Juliet	William Shakespeare
Macbeth	William Shakespeare
The Merchant of Venice	William Shakespeare
Pride and Prejudice	Jane Austen
Great Expectations	Charles Dickens
The Scarlet Letter	Nathaniel Hawthorne

Teaching should focus on the study of whole texts, developing students' comprehension and critical reading skills, as well as their ability to produce clear and coherent writing using accurate Standard English. Wider reading of literary texts is also encouraged to help students develop their skills.

Understanding the relationship between a text and its context (A04)

There are different kinds, or categories, of context which affect writers' work and the reader's response to it. Teaching should include:

- the writer's own life and individual situation, including the place and time of writing, only where these relate to the text
- the historical setting, time and location of the text
- social and cultural contexts (for example, attitudes in society; expectations of different cultural groups)

Assessment overview

Component 2 assesses 40% of the total English Literature qualification.

There will be two sections on the paper.

Section A: Modern Drama

Students will demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of their drama text, including the ways in which writers use language, form and structure to create effects.

Students must:

- demonstrate a close understanding of their drama text
- maintain a critical style
- present an informed personal engagement
- understand how writers create literary effects
- understand and use appropriate literary terminology
- identify and use relevant examples from the play.

Questions will test the following assessment objectives:

A01 Demonstrate a close knowledge and understanding of texts, maintaining a critical style and presenting an informed personal engagement

A02 Analyse the language, form and structure used by a writer to create meanings and effects.
