

Topic 1: River environments

What students need to learn

Key ideas	Detailed content
1.1 The world's water supply is contained in a closed system – the hydrological cycle	a) The hydrological cycle: characteristics, stores and transfers. b) Features of a drainage basin: source, watershed, channel network, mouth. c) Factors affecting river regimes: precipitation, including storm hydrographs, temperature, vegetation, land use, water abstraction, dams. (1)