

2.2 Distinctive ecosystems develop along particular stretches of coastline	a) Distributions and features of the world's coastal ecosystems (coral reefs, mangroves, sand dunes and salt marshes). (3) b) Abiotic and biotic characteristics of one named coastal ecosystem 🌐. (4) c) How small- and large-scale coastal ecosystems are threatened by people and their activities (industrialisation, agricultural practices, tourism and deforestation).
--	--

Case studies of coastal management in a developed country and a developing country or an emerging country.