

6 A world divided: International relations between the wars, 1919-39

	• The Versailles Settlement • International cooperation in the 1920s • The breakdown of cooperation in the early 1930s • Appeasement, 1935-39 • Reasons for the outbreak of the Second World War
• The aims of the 'Big Three'. Key terms of the treaties of Versailles, St Germain, Sevres, Trianon and Neuilly. Reactions to the peace treaties. • International cooperation and disarmament: The Corfu incident, the Washington Conference. The Locarno Treaties and the Kellogg-Briand Pact. • Impact of the world depression, emergence of dictators and the Japanese invasion of Manchuria. Failure of the Disarmament Conference 1932-33. Hitler's challenges to the peace settlement, including rearmament, and the Anglo-German Naval Treaty. • Reasons for appeasement. Failed Anschluss 1934, Italian invasion of Abyssinia 1935, the Stresa Front, Rhineland 1936, Austria March 1938, the Sudetenland Crisis and the Munich Conference. The Rome-Berlin Axis and the Anti-Comintern Pact. • German occupation of Czechoslovakia (March 1939), Anglo-French support for Poland, Pact of Steel, the Nazi-Soviet Pact, and the German invasion of Poland. Weaknesses of appeasement.
