

Topic 13: Matter – Separating mixtures

| Students should: |                                                                                                                                                                              | GuidanceiLowerSecondary Curriculum reference                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 13.1             | know methods of separation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• filtration</li><li>• evaporation</li><li>• simple distillation</li><li>• paper chromatography.</li></ul> | including the use of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• a filter paper and funnel to separate an insoluble solid from a liquid</li><li>• an evaporating basin and Bunsen burner to separate a soluble solid from a solution</li><li>• a simple distillation apparatus and condenser to separate a solvent from a solution</li><li>• chromatography paper to separate coloured dyes in inks and food colourings.</li></ul> Year 7: Matter – Separating mixtures |