

Topic 3: Growing plants

| Students should: |                                                                                                                            | GuidanceiPrimary Curriculum reference                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3.1              | know the functions of different parts of flowering plants: roots, stem/trunk, leaves and flowers                           | know that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• roots anchor the plant and take in water and nutrients</li><li>• stem/trunk supports plant and transports water and nutrients</li><li>• leaves are the site of food manufacture</li><li>• flowers are for reproduction.</li></ul> Year 4: Growing plants |
| 3.2              | understand the way in which water is transported within plants                                                             | understand that water passes from the soil into a plant's roots and up through the stem to the leaves and other parts of the plantdetails of the internal structure of roots and stems are NOT requiredYear 4: Growing plants                                                            |
| 3.3              | understand that plants need the correct amount of water and light to grow well                                             | Year 4: Growing plants                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 3.4              | understand that soil provides minerals to help plants grow and that this can be supplemented by fertilisers/organic matter | Year 4: Growing plants                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |