

3.3 Convey meaning in writing through the use of accurate grammar, punctuation and spelling.

- Sustain grammatical agreement and tense consistency to aid cohesion in the response.
- Write grammatically sound and correctly demarcated sentences.
- Use a range of sentence constructions: simple, compound and complex.
- Use a range of use of conjunctions, adverbials and prepositions to aid cohesion.
- Use a range of pronouns and determiners to aid cohesion and avoid unnecessary repetition.
- Use a range of adjectives, adverbs and prepositional phrases to enrich writing and employ stylistic choices to engage the audience and support the response.
- Use a range of punctuation correctly where necessary, including: apostrophes, commas, exclamation marks, full stops, hyphens, inverted commas, parenthetical devices (such as brackets, commas and dashes) and question marks.
- Spell common functional words accurately.

Writing skills

Writing skills need to be applied to the following.

Forms of writing:

- autobiographical
- biographical
- descriptive
- diary
- letter
- narrative
- newsletter
- recount.

Purpose of writing:

- argue
- describe
- entertain
- explain
- inform
- persuade.

Writing for different audiences, such as adults (for example, the head teacher), older children and children of their own age.