

1.1.5 A Route of Progression

MEI Structured Mathematics is designed not just to be a specification for AS or Advanced GCE Mathematics but to provide a route of progression through the subject starting from GCSE and going into what is first year work in some university courses. The specification is also, by design, entirely suitable for those who are already in employment, or are intending to progress directly into it.