

Topic 2: Programme music	Musical interpretation of a stimulus through melodic, harmonic, rhythmic and structural means, and instrumental timbres and textures (for both solo instruments and instrumental combinations)
	Prescribed repertoire	Related repertoire
	Antonio Vivaldi, Il cimento dell'armonia e dell'invenzione concerti a 4 e 5 (The Four Seasons) , op.8, nos. 1-4, RV 269, 315, 293 & 297 (c.1725)	Early 18 th century programme music (e.g. French keyboard music and Italian instrumental music)
	Hector Berlioz, Symphonie fantastique , op.14 (1830)	19 th century symphonic poems and programmatic overtures
	James MacMillan, The Confession of Isobel Gowdie (1990)	Descriptive instrumental music composed since 1950