

Candidates characteristically:

- a) select limited but relevant material
- b) deploy limited knowledge, some of which is accurate
- c) show limited accurate or consistent use of technical terms
- d) demonstrate basic understanding of key ideas, making occasional reference to examples and sources of evidence.

In addition, for the synoptic assessment, candidates perform at this level in relation to connections between different elements of their course of study.

Candidates characteristically:

- a) demonstrate minimal organisation and/or limited coherence
- b) demonstrate few personal insights, or little convincing argument or justification of a point of view with minimal evaluation
- c) use language and expression that lacks precision.

In addition, for the synoptic assessment, candidates show limited analysis of the nature of connections between elements of their course of study, their broader context and aspects of human experience.
