

- Learners use a range of materials and techniques along with a variety of approaches to produce work.
- Learners may use any chosen digital and non-digital media or a combination of both.
- Learners use critical and contextual understanding to support practical work.
- Learners may take an applied approach when working to a brief or stimuli.
- There is a need for all learners to develop understanding and skills in forms of drawing that are appropriate to their chosen specification title and the context in which the drawing is undertaken. Learners are not expected to demonstrate technical mastery of drawing skills, but should use drawing skills for different needs and purposes, to support the development process appropriate to their specification title and area(s) of study.

Other ways of drawing may include two- and three-dimensional designs, storyboarding, stitch and collage. It may be approached through traditional or digital media and emerging technologies, or a combination. Examples of specific forms of drawing can be found in the individual specification titles. |
