

6.1 What gives a product structural integrity?

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| a. | How and why specific materials and/or system components need to be reinforced or stiffened to withstand forces and stresses. | |
| b. | Awareness of the processes that can be used to ensure the structural integrity of a product, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• triangulation• use of boning, darts and layering in textile products• plastic webbing• reinforcing. | |