

Section B	Content	Learners should be able to:
Producing original creative writing.	Learners produce imaginative, original texts in a range of forms, including, for example, short stories and autobiographical writing. They use narrative techniques identified from their wide reading of prose fiction texts to achieve deliberate effects in their own writing. Learners explore how vocabulary and grammatical features can be used to achieve particular effects. They develop skills to adapt their writing for different purposes and contexts. Learners apply their knowledge and understanding of linguistic and literary conventions to create impact in their own writing.	• organise and structure ideas in narrative writing to create deliberate effects • maintain a consistent viewpoint across a piece of writing, making conscious decisions, for example, about narrative point of view • make considered choices of vocabulary and grammar to create deliberate effects • use the knowledge gained from wide reading of prose fiction and literary non-fiction to inform language choices and techniques • use language creatively and imaginatively • adapt tone, style and register as appropriate • select and emphasise key ideas to create meaning and influence readers • use a range of sentence structures for clarity, purpose and effect, with accurate punctuation and spelling.
