

The nature of reality Key philosophical and ethical concepts: • Arguments about the existence of G-d • Ideas about the purpose of the world • Ethical living	• Jewish philosophical views on the nature of reality and the reasons for belief in G-d, including: ◦ The world as designed and the argument from the evidence of design and purpose ◦ The world as requiring a cause and the argument from the concept of first cause ◦ The world as formed for humanity, as expressed in Genesis and by the Anthropic principle ◦ The world and moral consequence, covenant relationship and judgement • The value and importance of arguments for the existence of G-d Learners should be aware of the justifications Jews give for different views, attitudes and understandings, from the perspectives of different Jewish groups.	• Psalm 14:1 • Genesis 1:1 • The Cosmological argument • The First Cause argument • The teleological argument • The moral argument • Evidence from experiences of awe and wonder
---	---	--