

4 Social and historical developments	4.1	The impact of migration, secularisation and non-Sikh culture on beliefs, values and practices in the Sikh Diaspora a) Issues raised for the Sikh Rehat Maryada, including assimilation, the legal treatment of the panj kakke and diverse responses to issues related to marriage, including mixed marriages and marriages between homosexuals. b) The emphasis on the study of Punjabi as the language of religious devotion and the issue of English language use in the gurdwara. Analysis of Sikh values and secularisation, including Sikh responses to secular values, in the contemporary world as supportive of equality, freedom, democracy and the challenges of science. With reference to the ideas of G Singh and D S Tatla.
	4.2	The history, development and contemporary significance of liberationist approaches, including the concept of liberation, social justice, just war and martyrdom a) Examination of the commentary on peace, war and social justice and dharam yudh. a) Particular examples, periods or movements, including the martyrdom of Guru Arjun. c) Martyrdoms in the 18th century struggle for self-determination and the struggle for Khalistan in the 20th century. With reference to the ideas of L Fenech and P S Sambhi.