

|                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.12 The categorisation of the types, properties and structure of natural and manufactured timbers | To apply knowledge and understanding of working properties, characteristics, applications, advantages and disadvantages of the following types of materials, in order to be able to discriminate between them and select appropriately. |
|                                                                                                           | 1.12.1 Natural timbers – hardwoods, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a oak</li> <li>b mahogany</li> <li>c beech</li> <li>d balsa.</li> </ul>                                                                           |
|                                                                                                           | 1.12.2 Natural timbers – softwoods, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a pine</li> <li>b cedar.</li> </ul>                                                                                                               |
|                                                                                                           | 1.12.3 Manufactured timbers, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a plywood</li> <li>b medium density fibreboard (MDF).</li> </ul>                                                                                         |
|                                                                                                           | 1.12.4 Properties, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a hardness</li> <li>b toughness</li> <li>c durability.</li> </ul>                                                                                                  |