

1.13 Human activities can lead to changes in glaciated upland landscapes	a. How human activity (farming, forestry, settlement) has impacted on physical processes in glaciated upland landscapes. (16)
	b. Advantages and disadvantages of development (water storage and supply, renewable energy, recreation and tourism, conservation) and how they can lead to change in glaciated upland landscapes. (16)