

4.7 The character of the chosen developing country or emerging country city is influenced by its fast rate of growth	a. Reasons for past and present trends in population growth (rates of natural increase, national and international migration, economic investment and growth). (1)
	b. Causes of national and international migration and the impact on different parts of the chosen city (age structure, ethnicity, housing, services). (6)
	c. How the growth of the chosen city is accompanied by increasing inequality (areas of extreme wealth versus poverty) and reasons for differences in quality of life.