

Topic 5: Global development

Key idea	Detailed content
5.1 Definitions of development vary as do attempts to measure it	a. Contrasting ways of defining development, using economic criteria and broader social and political measures.
	b. Different factors contribute to the human development of a country: economic, social, technological, cultural, as well as food and water security.
	c. How development is measured in different ways: Gross Domestic Product (GDP) per capita, the Human Development Index, measures of inequality and indices of political corruption. (1)