

6.7 Management and sustainable use of energy resources are required at a range of spatial scales from local to international	a. Why renewable and non-renewable energy resources require sustainable management. (3)
	b. Different views held by individuals, organisations and governments on the management and sustainable use of energy resources.
	c. How one developed country and one emerging country or developing country  have attempted to manage their energy resources in a sustainable way.
Integrated skills. (1) Use and interpretation of world maps showing the distribution of energy resources (2) Use and interpretation of line graphs showing the range of future global population projections, and population in relation to likely available energy resources (3) Calculation of carbon and ecological footprints.

Optional sub topic 6B: Water resource management

Key idea	Detailed content
----------	------------------