
Section 16.2 Conflict and argument

Students will be required to: demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the specification; express their own responses to the issues and questions raised by the specification using reasons and evidence; evaluate alternative points of view about these issues and questions.

Key words — corban, fasting, the Law, Palm Sunday, passion, Pharisees, ritual cleanliness, Sabbath, Sadducees, scribes, sinners, the Temple

- Why the healing of the paralysed man led to conflict (2:1-12) and its significance for Christians today.
- Why disagreements about the Sabbath led to conflict (2:23-3:6) and their significance for Christians today, particularly in relation to current issues of social and community cohesion.
- Why disagreements about the meaning of the Law led to conflict (7:1-23) and their significance for Christians today, particularly in relation to current issues of social and community cohesion.
- Why Jesus' predictions of his passion might have led to conflict (8:31-33, 9:30-32, 10:32-34) and their significance for Christians today.
- Why Jesus' entry into Jerusalem might have caused conflict (11:1-11) and its significance for Christians today.
- Why Jesus' cleansing of the Temple might have caused conflict (11:15-18) and its significance for Christians today, particularly in relation to current issues of social and community cohesion.
- Why the argument about authority might have led to conflict (11:27-33) and its significance for Christians today.
- Why Jesus' answer to the question about Caesar and taxes might have led to conflict (12:13-17) and its significance for Christians today, particularly in relation to current issues of social and community cohesion.
- Why Jesus' argument with the Sadducees about resurrection might have led to conflict (12:18-27) and its significance for Christians today.
- Why the anointing at Bethany might have led to conflict (14:3-9) and its significance for Christians today.
- The meaning and significance of the plot to kill Jesus (14:1-2, 10-11, 17-21).