

Section 16.3 Death and resurrection

Students will be required to: demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the specification; express their own responses to the issues and questions raised by the specification using reasons and evidence; evaluate alternative points of view about these issues and questions.

Key words — blasphemy, crucifixion, Feast of Unleavened Bread, Gethsemane, Golgotha, High Priest, Judas Iscariot, Last Supper, Passover, Pontius Pilate, Sanhedrin, upper room

- The meaning and significance of the Last Supper for Mark (14:12-31).
- Why the Last Supper is important for Christians today.
- The meaning and significance of the prayers in Gethsemane (14:32-42), and why they might cause problems for some Christians today.
- The meaning and significance of the betrayal and arrest (14:43-52) in Mark, and why there are different attitudes to Judas among Christians today.
- The meaning and significance of the trial before the High Priest (14:53-65) in Mark, and how it affects Christian attitudes to justice.
- The meaning and significance of the trial before Pilate (15:1-15) in Mark, and why Christians today see the significance differently from Mark.
- The meaning and significance of the crucifixion (15:21-39) in Mark.
- Why the crucifixion is important for Christians today.
- The meaning and significance of the burial for Christians today.
- The meaning and significance of the resurrection for Mark as recorded in 16:1-8.
- The meaning and significance of the resurrection for Christians today.