

1.6 Government influences on business activity and objectives

Understanding how government can influence employment, growth, inflation and regional policy and how these influences provide opportunities for, and impose constraints upon, businesses in the pursuit of their objectives.

This will involve analysing the effects on business in terms of location and development, legislation, marketing/trading, constraints on public expenditure, taxation, import/export control through tariffs, quotas, exchange rates and competition policy.