

1. Mathematical models in probability and statistics

What students need to learn:

The basic ideas of mathematical modelling as applied in probability and statistics.
